

Grants! Grants! Grants!

Do you have a project in your park or neighborhood that you've always wanted to work on, but didn't have funding?

Come learn about how grants can help you get that funding!

We'll also discuss how to get a project vetted before starting your grant application and answer any questions you may have.

John Jewitt from the Enoch Pratt Free Library will discuss resources, proposal writing, and more.

When: Thursday, February 9th

What Time: 6:30-8:30pm

Where: Baltimore City Recreation & Parks

3001 East Drive in Druid Hill Park (21217)

(It's in that white building next to the pool!)

Refreshments and snacks will be provided!

To RSVP: <http://doodle.com/poll/ssd3uwhtagriifp3>

This grants workshop is presented in partnership with Clean Corps Baltimore and the Baltimore City Department of Recreation & Parks Growshop Series.