

Baltimore City Expanded Polystyrene Foam Ban

PERMITTED MATERIALS

PAPER

COMPOSTABLE

PLASTIC

ALUMINUM

For more info visit <http://www.baltimoresustainability.org/baltimore-city-foam-ban/>

Baltimore City Expanded Polystyrene Foam Ban

What is banned?

EXPANDED POLYSTYRENE FOOD & BEVERAGE CONTAINERS
(commonly known as Styrofoam™)

Who does it apply to?

All food service facilities, including: restaurants, grocery stores, hospital cafeterias, mobile food carts, bars/taverns, market stalls, public and private schools, caterers, special event food vendors, summer camps, bakeries, and congregation kitchens.

When does it go into effect?

October 19, 2019

What is the penalty? Basic fine: $200

 This law does not apply to food & beverages packaged in EPS foam outside the city, such as butchered meat or eggs.

Over

For more info visit <http://www.baltimoresustainability.org/baltimore-city-foam-ban/>