NATURE NURTURES 2021

Workshop Summary:

This Nature Nurtures 2021 session is for teachers who are new to working with students in outdoor spaces. Great Kids Farm (GKF) will demonstrate some simple physical tools for creating a low-budget outdoor learning environment, and discuss outdoor classroom management techniques. This workshop will be conducted outdoors at Baltimore City Public Schools' Great Kids Farm and during the course of the event they'll demonstrate some of the simple activities we do with students at the farm. And to reiterate: you might pet goats!
